

FINDING OF EMERGENCY

As a result of the enactment of Senate Bill 1102 (Chapter 227, Statutes of 2004), effective August 16, 2004, the Public Employment Relations Board (PERB or Board) has responsibility for the administration and enforcement of the Trial Court Employment Protection and Governance Act (Government Code 71600 et seq.) and the Trial Court Interpreter Employment and Labor Relations Act (Government Code 71800 et seq.). This new legislation and the duties imposed on PERB under it and the two statutes (referred to herein as the Trial Court Act and the Court Interpreter Act) require extensive amendments to existing regulations as well as the adoption of a new Chapter 7 and a new Chapter 8 in order to fully implement PERB jurisdiction.

The current regulations of the Board do not provide for the filing and processing of unfair practice charges or representation petitions under the Trial Court Act or the Court Interpreter Act. These legislative changes affect thousands of public employees in California, all trial courts in the state, and the employee organizations that represent employees under one or both of the amended statutes. PERB has already received numerous inquiries from employers, employees and employee organizations who are potentially affected by this new legislation.

In order that the procedural and substantive rights of employers, employees and employee organizations are protected, the Board finds that there exists an emergency need to adopt new regulations providing for the filing of petitions and unfair practice charges under the Trial Court Act and the Court Interpreter Act, and to amend other existing regulations where necessary to conform to newly-adopted or amended regulations. The Board finds that the new regulations are necessary for the public peace and general welfare.

INFORMATIVE DIGEST

Section 31001 provides for meetings of the Public Employment Relations Board. The proposed changes update authority and reference citations to reflect the extension of Board responsibility to include the Trial Court Employment Protection and Governance Act (Government Code section 71600 et seq.) and Trial Court Interpreter Employment and Labor Relations Act (Government Code section 71800 et seq.), pursuant to Chapter 227, Statutes of 2004. As of August 16, 2004, PERB has responsibility to administer and enforce these two statutes.

Section 32020 provides a definition for the term "Board." The proposed changes update authority and reference citations to reflect the extension of Board responsibility to include the Trial Court Employment Protection and Governance Act (Government Code section 71600 et seq.) and Trial Court Interpreter Employment and Labor Relations Act (Government Code section 71800 et seq.), pursuant to Chapter 227, Statutes of 2004. As of August 16, 2004, PERB has responsibility to administer and enforce these two statutes.

Section 32030 provides a definition for the term "Board itself." The proposed changes update authority and reference citations to reflect the extension of Board responsibility to include the Trial Court Employment Protection and Governance Act (Government Code section 71600 et seq.) and Trial Court Interpreter Employment and Labor Relations Act (Government Code section 71800 et seq.), pursuant to Chapter 227, Statutes of 2004. As of August 16, 2004, PERB has responsibility to administer and enforce these two statutes.

Proposed Section 32032 adopts a definition of "Trial Court Act," the Trial Court Employment Protection and Governance Act as contained in Chapter 7 of Title 8 of the Government Code (commencing with Section 71600). Effective August 16, 2004, PERB has responsibility to administer and enforce this statute.

Proposed Section 32033 adopts definitions of terms applicable for cases filed under the Trial Court Act. Effective August 16, 2004, PERB has responsibility to administer and enforce this statute.

Proposed Section 32034 adopts a definition of "Court Interpreter Act," the Trial Court Interpreter Employment and Labor Relations Act as contained in Chapter 7.5 of Title 8 of the Government Code (commencing with Section 71800). Effective August 16, 2004, PERB has responsibility to administer and enforce this statute.

Proposed Section 32035 adopts definitions of terms applicable for cases filed under the Court Interpreter Act. Effective August 16, 2004, PERB has responsibility to administer and enforce this statute.

Section 32040 provides a definition for the term “Executive Director.” The proposed changes update authority and reference citations to reflect the extension of Board responsibility to include the Trial Court Employment Protection and Governance Act (Government Code section 71600 et seq.) and Trial Court Interpreter Employment and Labor Relations Act (Government Code section 71800 et seq.), pursuant to Chapter 227, Statutes of 2004. As of August 16, 2004, PERB has responsibility to administer and enforce these two statutes.

Section 32050 provides a definition for the term “General Counsel.” The proposed changes update authority and reference citations to reflect the extension of Board responsibility to include the Trial Court Employment Protection and Governance Act (Government Code section 71600 et seq.) and Trial Court Interpreter Employment and Labor Relations Act (Government Code section 71800 et seq.), pursuant to Chapter 227, Statutes of 2004. As of August 16, 2004, PERB has responsibility to administer and enforce these two statutes.

Section 32055 provides a definition for the term “Chief Administrative Law Judge.” The proposed changes update authority and reference citations to reflect the extension of Board responsibility to include the Trial Court Employment Protection and Governance Act (Government Code section 71600 et seq.) and Trial Court Interpreter Employment and Labor Relations Act (Government Code section 71800 et seq.), pursuant to Chapter 227, Statutes of 2004. As of August 16, 2004, PERB has responsibility to administer and enforce these two statutes.

Section 32060 provides a definition for the term “headquarters office.” The proposed changes update authority and reference citations to reflect the extension of Board responsibility to include the Trial Court Employment Protection and Governance Act (Government Code section 71600 et seq.) and Trial Court Interpreter Employment and Labor Relations Act (Government Code section 71800 et seq.), pursuant to Chapter 227, Statutes of 2004. As of August 16, 2004, PERB has responsibility to administer and enforce these two statutes.

Section 32075 provides a definition for the term “regional office.” The proposed changes update authority and reference citations to reflect the extension of Board responsibility to include the Trial Court Employment Protection and Governance Act (Government Code section 71600 et seq.) and Trial Court Interpreter Employment and Labor Relations Act (Government Code section 71800 et seq.), pursuant to Chapter 227, Statutes of 2004. As of August 16, 2004, PERB has responsibility to administer and enforce these two statutes.

Section 32080 provides a definition for the term “day.” The proposed changes update authority and reference citations to reflect the extension of Board responsibility to include the Trial Court Employment Protection and Governance Act (Government Code section 71600 et seq.) and Trial Court Interpreter Employment and Labor Relations Act (Government Code section 71800 et seq.), pursuant to Chapter 227, Statutes of 2004. As of August 16, 2004, PERB has responsibility to administer and enforce these two statutes.

Section 32085 provides definitions for the term “workday” under each of the statutes administered by PERB. Proposed new subsections (f) and (g) provide a “workday” definition under the Trial Court Act and Court Interpreter Act, respectively. The proposed changes also update authority and reference citations to reflect the extension of Board responsibility to include the Trial Court Employment Protection and Governance Act (Government Code section 71600 et seq.) and Trial Court Interpreter Employment and Labor Relations Act (Government Code section 71800 et seq.), pursuant to Chapter 227, Statutes of 2004. As of August 16, 2004, PERB has responsibility to administer and enforce these two statutes. The authority citations are also amended to delete a redundant cite.

Section 32090 provides for filing by facsimile machine. The proposed changes update authority and reference citations to reflect the extension of Board responsibility to include the Trial Court Employment Protection and Governance Act (Government Code section 71600 et seq.) and Trial Court Interpreter Employment and Labor Relations Act (Government Code section 71800 et seq.), pursuant to Chapter 227, Statutes of 2004. As of August 16, 2004, PERB has responsibility to administer and enforce these two statutes.

Section 32100 provides for when regulations contained in Chapter 1 apply to PERB proceedings. Proposed new subsections (d) and (e) provide for the application of these regulations, except for Subchapter 6 of Chapter 1, in matters arising under the Trial Court Act and Court Interpreter Act, respectively. Effective August 16, 2004, PERB has responsibility to administer and enforce these two statutes.

Section 32105 provides for the severability of PERB’s regulations. The proposed changes update authority and reference citations to reflect the extension of Board responsibility to include the Trial Court Employment Protection and Governance Act (Government Code section 71600 et seq.) and Trial Court Interpreter Employment and Labor Relations Act (Government Code section 71800 et seq.), pursuant to Chapter 227, Statutes of 2004. As of August 16, 2004, PERB has responsibility to administer and enforce these two statutes.

Section 32120 provides for the filing of collective bargaining agreements. Proposed new language provides for the application of this section to employers under the Trial Court Act and Court Interpreter Act. Effective August 16, 2004, PERB has responsibility to administer and enforce these two statutes.

Section 32122 specifies in which “regional office” representation filings should be made, except for those filed under the Ralph C. Dills Act or the Higher Education Employer-Employee Relations Act. The proposed changes update authority and reference citations to reflect the extension of Board responsibility to include the Trial Court Employment Protection and Governance Act (Government Code section 71600 et seq.) and Trial Court Interpreter Employment and Labor Relations Act (Government Code section 71800 et seq.), pursuant to Chapter 227, Statutes of 2004. As of August 16, 2004, PERB has responsibility to administer and enforce these two statutes.

Section 32130 addresses the computation of time for filing. Proposed new language and citations provide for the application of this section to parties under the Trial Court Employment Protection and Governance Act (Government Code section 71600 et seq.) and Trial Court Interpreter Employment and Labor Relations Act (Government Code section 71800 et seq.), pursuant to Chapter 227, Statutes of 2004. As of August 16, 2004, PERB has responsibility to administer and enforce these two statutes.

Section 32132 concerns the requirements for an extension of time in which to file documents with the Board. The proposed changes update authority and reference citations to reflect the extension of Board responsibility to include the Trial Court Employment Protection and Governance Act (Government Code section 71600 et seq.) and Trial Court Interpreter Employment and Labor Relations Act (Government Code section 71800 et seq.), pursuant to Chapter 227, Statutes of 2004. As of August 16, 2004, PERB has responsibility to administer and enforce these two statutes.

Section 32135 concerns filing requirements. The proposed changes amend the provisions and update authority and reference citations to reflect the extension of Board responsibility to include the Trial Court Employment Protection and Governance Act (Government Code section 71600 et seq.) and Trial Court Interpreter Employment and Labor Relations Act (Government Code section 71800 et seq.), pursuant to Chapter 227, Statutes of 2004.
